

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be applied to Kim Stahl; and,

Whereas, Kim has served the state of South Dakota with distinction, pride, and loyalty for 35 years in several capacities spending the majority of her career serving as Human Resource Manager for the Bureaus and Department of Corrections; and,

Whereas, Kim has represented herself with consummate professionalism and skill as evidenced by her certification as a Senior Professional in Human Resources. She is recognized by her peers as an exceptional resource for human resources guidance, wisdom, and leadership; and,

Whereas, Kim has been a dedicated volunteer for countless celebrations, ceremonies, and official events held at the Capitol complex; and,

Whereas, Kim's retirement plans include spending time with her husband, John, her children, and grandchildren; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 4, 2013, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State
